President's Message

Greetings Brothers,

The March Business Meeting was very productive. Dinner was great and we have a new member in our Council, Joven Borneo. Joven is very active in the All Souls Parish and has been asked to start an All Souls youth ministry.

We selected a layout for a new Council #32 Banner and Brother Rich Murphy has volunteered to procure the new banner. We have nominated 6 delegates for the YMI National Convention at South Lake on June 20, 21 & 22. The delegates are: Brian Dunbar, Luis Alvarenga, Rich Murphy, Rich Murray, William Murray and Mark Zolokoff. This year's Convention is going to tackle an issue regarding the YMI death benefit which may be expanded to include Associate Members. Come to our next meeting to learn more.

All Souls Bingo is coming back and the Parish & School are looking for sponsors. We discussed this at length and tabled the matter for further discussion.

Thank you to Brother Ron Guaraldi and his crew for putting on the February Social lamb dinner. A special thanks to Paul Galeotti who paid for the lamb chops.

President's Message

Thanks to Ron & Paul, and your participation, the event raised close to $1,000 for the Food Basket Program! Well done, brothers.

Congratulations to our #32 YMI brothers listed at the bottom of the page on their well deserved community awards.

The annual Red & White Mass and Dinner was held on March 12th. Steve Cresci did a great job of coordinating the event with a scrumptious catered dinner. YMI Councils #2, #8, #32, #44, #54, #99, and #613, along with YLI members and friends attended the Mass and dinner. Paul Walsh hosted the Corned Beef & Cabbage Social on March 24th and Tom Fourie's grandchildren provided the Irish dancing entertainment.

Please come to our next meeting on Thursday, April 14th. The joker has not yet been picked – the deck is getting smaller and the kitty is getting larger! Please remember to RSVP with Garden Chapel and bring a friend. Happy Easter!

Pro Deo, Pro Patria,

Ken Stupi
President

Council Chatter

Sincere sympathy to the family of Leonore Armanino, who passed away -December 2021

A big thank you to Brother Paul Galeotti. Paul purchased the meat that was used for the Lamb Rack / Chicken dinner and then donated the proceeds to the Louis P. Guaraldi Food Basket Program. Brother Ron Guaraldi notes that he was both proud and humbled by Pauls' generosity and encourages his brothers to thank Paul for this gesture. Ron also expressed his thanks to all who came to the dinner and to his cooking crew, Bill Green, Ken Colombo and Dennis Colombo. Their assistance was greatly appreciated. Ron emphasized that all the proceeds went straight to the Food Basket Program which is a wonderful endeavor that YMI Council #32 has taken on and these funds will help to continue. Ron also offered to be back next February with a cooking crew to do the same!

Brothers Bob Bartoli and Alan Patrick remind us that applications are being accepted for the Creamer College Scholarship for 2022. The application was included in last month's YMI 32 News. As part of the March 24th, "Irish Night" celebration, Pat and Tom Fouries' grandchildren (photo) were featured in the performance portion that night. Special thanks to Tom for providing the photo and for the student's fine performance of Irish Dancing.

Thanks also to Brother Paul Walsh and his cooking crew For the corned beef and cabbage dinner. Delicious!

So raise your glass in appreciation to these brothers... Slainte'

Welcome to #32 to our Newest Member Jovencio Borneo!

Brother Steve Cresi writes... I am looking for suggestions for this year's questions for the 49th year of the YMI Pro-Deo, Pro-Patria contest. There are two questions needed, one for students in the 7th & 8th Grade and the second for students in the 9- 12th grades. The topics in the past have focused on Country, such as social issues, and religion pertaining to our Catholic faith. I believe with your participation we can have some great ideas generated. Submit your ideas for questions to me via email. If your question is used then I will to buy you a dinner at an upcoming meeting. scresci16@gmail.com
