August 2022

President's Message

Greetings Brothers,

Here's hoping everyone had a safe and celebratory holiday on July 4th.

Turned it into a short week for some of us and an excuse to BBQ for others!

The July 14th meeting the was held in the lower hall of the church. Word went out and it was well attended. Until further notice, we will meet in the church hall for business meetings/ socials until renovations at the school are completed.

We voted to cancel the July Social due to lack of adequate kitchen appliances, for our purposes, in the lower hall, but we are praying that they finish up the school so our August 25th Social can be held back at the school cafeteria. Stay tuned for further developments.

A portion of the funds were voted on to support the new Seminarian to help with his every day life in serving the Lord. Please say a prayer for him that his studies can continue on his path.

 Anybody up for a picnic? #613 has theirs in August and we were invited....but maybe it's time to do one ourselves, too. September weather is generally good. Maybe a Sunday, from 10 am to 2 pm. (Before the wind picks up) We could do it at the Bocce Courts and get some practice in before the Sept 24th tournament. BBQ some sausages and burgers, get some mac or potato salad, dessert and some drinks. Charge like $10. Not a money maker, just cover costs and get together outdoors. Hmm.....the seed is planted.
