President's Message

Greetings Brothers,

I'll start with a few lines from Murphy's Law:

Never sleep with anyone crazier than yourself !

The light at the end of the tunnel is a headlamp of an oncoming train !

The lamb dinner on 2/23, brought to us by member Ron Guaraldi, was a little more to pay, but well worth it ! Chops seasoned and served with veggies and bread. No matter the cost, all members should try to make these gatherings a few times a year. The dinners prepared by Joe Ortisi or our guest "chefs" always hit the spot !

Our annual Red & White Mass was held in Atwater, CA this year. Thanks to Mike Amato #613 for arranging the bus to go down there. Thanks to Billy Avery #80 for arranging the sit down dinner for everyone.

When the bus finally parked, we entered the gym, where tables and chairs needed to be set in order. Members from #32, #80, #8 and #316 with spouses all helped make life a little easier for the crew.

President's Message

The mass, well attended, was a beautiful celebration of the Young Men's Institute with banners walked up the aisle and carnations representing those we have lost and those we have found to be new members. The dinner of tri tip, chicken, green bean recipe and salad was delicious ! Fun for all.

Speaking of dinners our very own Paul Walsh cooked up some corned beef, cabbage and red potatoes for the masses. Wow. Mrs. Murphy supplied the soda breads. Plus Tom Fourie's grandchildren danced a few jigs to the applause of everyone. Well done!

Will the Warriors win a game on the road?

What will the new rules bring to the Giants?

Who is the starting quarterback for the 49ers?

Just a few fun topics to discuss with you at our future socials. Do not be a stranger. Join us!

Council Chatter

Apparently, only a couple of people responded by email to the dinner survey, I sent out with the last newsletter. So... Joe must be doing a great job with all his dinners, and its hard to pick a favorite. Please remember to thank Brother Joe Ortisi and his crew for their great meal preparation and dedication to our Council.
