2018-2019

Pro Deo, Pro Patria
Returning to Our Roots 2

Introduction

We all have time commitments and plans in our lives that sometimes cause us to think we can't give any more time to YMI. Although my family and I were planning to "celebrate" the ending of my term as Grand Council President, life situations happened to others which we have no control over. After prayerful reflection for the upcoming year, and with my wife's blessing, I've agreed to serve another term as your president. With that said, I now challenge you to do the same, step up this year and devote more time than you planned to help increase our membership.

As a firm believer in not reinventing the wheel, I have decided to keep last year's program in place with a few modifications. If you didn't take these points to heart last year, will you do so this year?

How has your Council improved this past year? If it hasn't, what will you, as a leader in the YMI, do to make the changes that are necessary for improvement to take place?

Every year we hear the refrain that our members are dying off and there are no young men to replace them. We even hear suggestions that we should let non-Catholic men become members to bolster our numbers. Frankly Brothers, that's UNACCEPTABLE. I challenge you to look around when you attend Mass. How many men do you see, young and old, who are not YMI members? Or members of Knights of Columbus? Or involved in any other parish groups? If your parish is anything like mine, I am sure it is more than a handful. Ask yourself, "If I was interested in joining a parish group would I just show up at a meeting or would I like someone to ask me to be their guest?" I encourage you to be the change we need to keep YMI going.

Our Purpose

Our purpose is three-fold: Faith, Patriotism and Fraternalism.

- Faith – We pledge ourselves to be practicing Catholics and we are active participants supporting our parishes.
- Patriotism – We love our country, respect its laws and show our public support for America by voting, flying our flags and reciting the Pledge of Allegiance at each meeting.
- Fraternalism – As members of the YMI, we extend our hand to each other in Brotherly love and call each other “Brother”. Family and family values are important to us, so our families are included in many of our functions.

That is why we are here and involved in the YMI. But we must move beyond just that. How do we do this? I believe a look at our Mission Statement provides a clue.

Our Mission

The Mission of the YMI is to provide for the mutual aid and good will, the moral, intellectual and social improvement of its members, devotion to the Catholic Church, and loyalty to our country in accordance with its motto: “Pro Deo, Pro Patria – For God, For Country.” To achieve this mission, the YMI dedicates itself to the education of its members in things Catholic, in things American and in all things that will lead all men to their ultimate salvation.

Mutual Aid and Good Will

Mutual aid is a term first coined in 1530 and is the cooperative as opposed to the competitive factors operating in the development of society. Good will is defined as friendly disposition, benevolence and kindness. For our use, both can refer to the support we give each other as Brothers of the fraternity and the support individual Councils give to each other and to the Grand Council.

When was the last time your Council went as a group to a neighboring Council either for their monthly meeting or to one of their fundraisers? When was the last time you came to a Grand Council social event such as bowling, Bocce ball, or the Pasta Bingo dinner? These are examples of mutual aid and promote good will among Brothers. I encourage you to attend Grand Council events and I especially encourage you to consider visiting other Councils. It might be what struggling Councils need in order for them to realize they are part of a larger group. A group that wants them to succeed.

Moral, Intellectual, and Social Improvement

How can we as YMI members become better Men of God? How do we show our fellow parishioners that being a YMI Brother has helped us improve morally, intellectually, and socially? Do we do that by talking bad about our Brothers or do we do it by supporting our Brothers on their journey to become better men and better Catholics?

Listening to the homily on Sunday and then going back to our secular life on Monday morning has never been the answer. There are a variety of ways to improve ourselves. Have you thought about what you can do during the week to strengthen your faith life such as watching EWTN when you get home, listening to Catholic radio on your way to work, or reading the Daily Mass readings?

Has your Council thought about partnering with other parish groups to sponsor a parish retreat or a Dynamic Catholic book giveaway at Easter? In this era of decreased participation nationwide in fraternal groups, partnerships are a way we can all benefit to strengthen our local parishes and, in turn, promote the YMI.

Devotion to the Catholic Church

What does devotion mean? Devotion is an earnest attachment or a profound dedication to a cause or person. One cannot be considered a true member of the YMI without a devotion to the Catholic Church. Our meetings begin and end with prayer. Our Councils regularly contribute to their respective parishes. Our members actively participate in parish activities, ministries, etc. Is that enough? Each Brother must answer that for himself and Councils need to figure that out collectively.

Loyalty to Our Country

All Brothers I have met, regardless of their political ideology, have a deep, abiding loyalty to the United States. How can we show and encourage others in our parishes to do the same?

Member Education – Catholic, American, and Our Ultimate Salvation

We should always consider ourselves to be “lifelong learners”. It seems that many of us have only a rudimentary knowledge of our faith. We learned what we know during catechism classes in grade school and then we stopped. Our ultimate salvation depends on the recognition of squaring our actions with the requirements of our Faith. Everything in Christian life – from our ethical behavior, to prayer, to the liturgy, to the works of justice – all of it is meant to lead us to our ultimate salvation. Member education on how to be better Catholics and better Americans can help each of us reach that goal. So listen to the voice of the shepherd and follow him wherever he goes.

In Conclusion

I cannot tell you how to implement these points in your individual Councils but I encourage each Council to choose at least one of these ideas to see how they can implement them into the “culture” of their individual Councils. By strengthening our individual Councils, we strengthen the YMI organization. If we want the YMI to continue through the 21st century, all of us, from our newest to our most senior member, must play a part in making that happen.

Yours for God and Country,

*Mike Nelson #80
2018-2019 Grand President*

Our Patron Saint

St. Joseph, Patron Saint of the Young Men's Institute, watch over us as carefully as you watched over Jesus, help protect and guide us as you did with your adopted son and intercede for us with Him, who with the Father and the Holy Spirit reigns world without end. Amen.

A PRAYER FOR OUR NATION

Almighty God, bless our nation and make it true to the ideas of freedom, justice and brotherhood for all who make it great.

Guard us from war, from fire and wind, from compromise, fear and confusion.

Be close to our president and our statesman, give them vision and courage, as they ponder decisions affecting peace and the future of the world.

Make me more deeply aware of my heritage, realizing not only my rights but also my duties and responsibilities as a citizen.

Make this great land and all its people know clearly Your will, that they may fulfill the destiny ordained for us in the salvation of the nations, and the restoring of all things in Christ.

We ask this through Jesus Christ, Our Lord and Savior. Amen

“DISTRICT/COUNCIL DEPUTY GRAND PRESIDENT”

Networking is a very popular concept in today’s technological world. For the YMI, networking is most importantly defined as two-way communication. To listen is to learn. To be able to act on that learning is a true talent. The Brothers of the Young Men’s Institute who have accepted the responsibilities of District/Council Deputy Grand President are indeed talented. These caring young men will be the eyes and ears for Grand Council Officers in regards to all Council concerns and activities. This position is perhaps the strongest link in the YMI network. Their responsibility is to articulate the Grand President’s program, keep the Grand President apprised of the conditions of Councils, visit their respective Councils at business and/or social gatherings, install new officers, assist Councils in preparing for annual audit, and shall seek to assist in the organizing of new Councils.

On a quarterly basis beginning with the 3rd quarter of 2018, each District/Council Deputy Grand President shall submit a report to the Grand President in reference to their Council visits during the quarter. A template of the new standard report will be provided to you by the Grand President at the 2018 Session or mailed to you. The report once completed, will be sent to the Grand President via e-mail no later than two weeks following the end of the quarter. The Grand President will provide a summary of the District/Council Deputy Grand President reports to the Grand Council Officers at each Grand Director meeting. Each District/Council Deputy Grand President will also send in a written summary report of their activities during the year to the Grand Present by May 1, 2019, which will be published in the Advance Proceedings. In addition, each District Council/Deputy Grand Presided will be awarded with voting privileges as a Delegate to the Grand Council Session. Finally, the Young Men’s Institute thanks all of the District/Council Deputy Grand Presidents for their commitment and continued support.

DISTRICT/COUNCIL VISITATIONS BY GRAND COUNCIL OFFICERS

In a true showing of YMI fraternalism, the Grand President, Grand First Vice-President, Grand Second Vice-President and all other Grand Council Officers will be visiting Councils throughout this YMI year. These visits will be orchestrated through the office of the District/Council Deputy Grand President. The visits will be one of listening, asking for suggestions and offering help. The life-line of the YMI is the Council. The Grand Council exists to support all Brothers at the Council level. Our goal is to complete these rounds of visitations before March 1, 2019, giving the

COMMUNICATING WITHIN YMI

The Grand Council Office continues to invite all Brothers who have an e-mail address to join our list. Frequent announcements regarding both Council and Grand Council activities will be advertised this year. In order to place your address on the list, please send an e-mail to Brother Tom Fourie at ymius@aol.com and state that you want to be included.

The list is being structured in such a way that individual Councils will be able to send messages just to their Council members. This service is being offered to increase communication among all Brothers of the YMI and there is no cost to anyone.

The YMI web site is up and running well. Please take a look and utilize this tool for yourself, your Council, and to have prospective members see what we are about. www.ymiusa.org
